ELDER LAW

Clark & Trevithick has an expanding elder law team that focuses on assisting clients in planning for their silver retirement years. We offer general advice and counsel on elder care issues, as well as complex estate planning and litigation, including trust litigation and obtaining guardianships and conservatorships. We advise clients on how best to utilize retirement funds for their care, formalize their health care desires, and plan the transfer of their assets to heirs. We also provide counsel on issues of financial and physical abuse of elderly family members and litigation of financial and physical abuse claims, representing the elderly client or the accused abuser.

Our Elder Law Services Include:

- Estate Planning
 - Planning for extended care
 - Planning to maximize assets
- Preparation of Advanced Health Care Directives
- Handling issues of financial and physical elder abuse
- Reviewing potential issues of elder abuse
- Advising clients on how best to handle elder abuse issues
- Litigation of matters involving both financial and physical elder abuse
