PARTNERSHIP DISPUTES & RESOLUTION

Clark & Trevithick's Partnership Dispute & Resolution Practice Group has been involved in a number of partnership/joint venture disputes as well as family and closely held corporation disputes involving real estate partnerships and joint ventures, law firm partnerships and closely held businesses. The firm's business expertise is particularly useful in attempting to resolve these types of disputes without litigation or, alternatively, in mediation or arbitration. However, when necessary, the firm's litigation capability is readily available to address situations which cannot be resolved through negotiation or alternative dispute resolution.

We provide an entire range of dispute resolution services from mediation through litigation including:

- Partnership agreements
- Limited Liability Company agreements
- Shareholder agreements
- Termination agreements
