

ALEXANDER C. MCGILVRAY, JR.

Alex McGilvray specializes in corporate and business transactions including mergers and acquisitions, securities and other corporate finance matters as well as venture capital and angel investor transactions and general corporate, partnership and limited liability company matters.

In addition to his duties as a corporate and business transactional lawyer, Alex served as Clark & Trevithick's Managing Shareholder for approximately 20 years.

CONTACT

T: 213.629.5700

F: 213.624.9441

E: AMcGilvray@ClarkTrev.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate

EDUCATION

- JD, UCLA School of Law, 1974
- BS, Stanford University, distinction honors, Economics, 1971

ACCOLADES

- Listed, Southern California Super Lawyers, continuously since 2008.

EXPERIENCE

- Currently representing a Southern California-based technology company in its proposed sale, which is expected to exceed $100 million in total consideration.
- Currently representing a Southern California distributor of washroom equipment in the sales of its business to an East Coast company for $14 million in cash.
- In August 2019, represented a Southern California-based company in connection with its negotiation of an exclusive license to sell the products of a Japanese firm in the US.
- In November 2019, co-represented a Southern California-based company in a $50 million loan refinancing of its various businesses.
- In February 2019, represented a Southern California-based company in acquiring the assets of a South Carolina manufacturer of aerosol products for the automotive aftermarket sector in a leveraged transaction for $22.5 Million.
- In September 2017, represented a provider of automated forms and management software for the securities and insurance industries in the sale of its assets to an East Company for $30 Million in cash.
- In March 2017, represented a Southern California-based manufacturer of aerosol products in its acquisition of the assets of a North Carolina manufacturer of bag-on-valve products sold into the OTC drug and food markets for $7.5 Million in total consideration.
- In December 2016, represented a manufacturer of thermoplastic paint products for street and highway marking to a large competitor for $24 Million in cash.

AFFILIATIONS

- Current member and former director of Pasadena Angels, an angel investment group with approximately 100 members.
- Former Chairman of Board of Trustees of Mayfield Junior School located in Pasadena, California.
- A founder, former director and officer and current member of Club La Mision, a quail-hunting club located in northern Baja California, Mexico.